

OPEN ACCESS AND COPYRIGHT POLICY

The journal Ukrainian Linguistics Medieval Studies is an open-access journal: browsing, reading, downloading, and printing are free of charge. Access to the journal's content is available immediately after the publication of the printed version or the posting of the electronic version on the webpage.

The Editorial Board supports the Budapest Open Access Initiative (BOAI) <https://www.budapestopenaccessinitiative.org/>, which promotes the accelerated development of science. According to its principles, all journal content is freely available and free of charge for the user or their institution. Users are permitted to read, download, copy, distribute (in a manner that does not infringe copyright), print, search, or link to the full texts of the articles in this journal without asking prior permission from the publisher or the author.

The Editorial Board supports the Science Europe “Plan S” initiative regarding the publication of research results in open-access journals under the terms of the Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 International (CC-BY 4.0) <https://creativecommons.org/licenses/by/4.0/deed.uk>.

Authors' Rights:

- Authors retain all copyrights and publishing rights without any restrictions.
- Authors have the right to distribute the published version of the article (including depositing it in institutional repositories or on personal webpages) with a mandatory reference to the original source in this journal.
- The license terms do not limit the author's moral rights to the recognition of their authorship and the protection of the work's integrity. The Editorial Board ensures the preservation of the article's scientific content after its approval for publication.

When submitting a manuscript for consideration by the Editorial Board, authors must send a completed and signed Consent for Publication and Disclosure of Personal Data to the email address: ukrlingmed@ukr.net.
